

Aneeta Gokhale Benninger

Prof. Aneeta Gokhale Benninger is a Founder Trustee and Executive Director of Centre for Development Studies and Activities (CDSA) and Professor of Sustainable Development Planning. As Urban and Regional Planner and Sustainable Development Professional, teacher and researcher she has taught at various premiere National Institutions in India. She was an advisor to the Planning Commission, GOI, The Royal Government of Bhutan, the Government of Sri Lanka, various State Governments in India, the World Bank and various agencies of the United Nations, such as, The UNICEF, The FAO, The UNDP, UNCHS (HABITAT). Her present work includes, the QCM (Quantified Cities Movement) QCM-DRR (Quantified Cities Movement for Disaster Risk Reduction) with a focus on children participating in the decision-making process, supported by UNICEF, Pune River Front Development with HCP Ltd. as local partners. She is currently a member of the jury for the Times of India & JSW Earth Care Awards. She also designs and conducts training for the Village Social Transformation Mission of the Maharashtra Chief Minister.

