

Snehanshu Mukherjee

Snehanshu Mukherjee graduated in architecture from SPA Delhi and as an INLAKS scholar, went on to do his post-graduation in Design and Housing from MIT, USA. Since then, apart from practicing architecture as a founding partner of Team for Engineering Architecture & Management (TEAM) — after winning a national competition of the New Wing, NGMA Delhi — he has taught at SPA New Delhi as a visiting Professor, and been associated in various capacities with several institutions of architecture in India, such as CEPT University, SPA Vijaywada, PVPCOA Pune, and IES COA Mumbai. He is deeply interested in understanding, analysing, and putting forth solutions to the process of architectural and urban design in India, which also inform the content of his writings published in several journals, books and his blog.
